General and Revenue Dept.

Sir,

In submitting herewith copy of the marginally noted correspondence and the file of vernacular papers therein referred to, together with a Remission Statement duly verified by the Comptroller for Rs 200/- in favour of Venkataramiah, licensee of Sarjapur toddy shop for the year 1898-1899, I have the honor to state that it appears from Kannarese order No. 273, dated 2nd November 1899 (at the foot of Serial No. 14) to the Amildar of Anekal, Mr. Puttanna Chetty, the then Deputy Commissioner, promised to grant a remission of Rs 200/- in favour of the said licensee, in consequence of his having suffered loss owing to the bre prevalence of plague. Under such circumstance, I beg to recommend that the balance of Rs 200/- outstanding against the licensee, may be ordered to be written off the accounts.

2. The Government have sanctioned remission in certain instances, only on account of loss due to the prohibition of Jatras or fairs by Government. The above is not a similar case. The Deputy Commissioner was not therefore justified in making any promise for remission without previous sanction.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
